POLICY AND PROCEDURE NOTES:

- The Student cannot begin a Fieldwork without approval from the Marist Psychology Fieldwork Coordinator.
- Fieldwork must be started and finished within the academic calendar semester schedule.
- The Student is responsible for maintaining contact (particularly by email) with the Marist Faculty Supervisor (Instructor).
- The Student will maintain a journal log of their activities for review by their Marist Faculty Supervisor.
- The Student will maintain a timesheet that will be signed by the site supervisor and submitted for review by the Marist Faculty Supervisor.
- The Student will attend all group supervision meetings held by the Marist Faculty Supervisor.
- The Student will complete all assigned papers and evaluations and submit them to the Marist Faculty Supervisor.
- The Marist Faculty Supervisor will visit the Student and Site Supervisor during the semester. If the site is more than an hour from Marist, the Faculty Supervisor will not perform a site visit. In this case, the Site Supervisor and Faculty Supervisor will communicate periodically to discuss the fieldworker's progress.
- The parties to this contract agree to fulfill their respective expectations and responsibilities as describe by the Fieldwork Manual.
- Job activities and responsibilities can only be altered by specific agreement of all three parties involved.

- The undersigned Site Supervisor agrees to consistently provide weekly one-to-one supervision meetings to provide instruction, facilitate development of necessary skills and knowledge, and enhance the personal and professional growth of the intern. The Agency Site Supervisor will submit an Evaluation of the Intern to the Marist Faculty Supervisor.
